I. W. W. MEN ARE AWAITING DEPORTATION

(By Associated Press)
New York, Feb. 11.—Fifty-four radicals, often born anarchists and industrial workers of the world and others arrived at Hoboken on a train from the west enroute to the Ellis Island immigration station where they are to be detained until arrangements can be made for their deportation. As one group was led from the train to a boat for the island, three cheers were given for the Bolsheviks and I. W. W. When all had reached the deck of the immigration boat the police ordered the I. W. W. to move to one end of the vessel. One objected and punched a policeman on the nose. Other I. W. W.'s closed in. The police came to the rescue of the man attacked and not until clubs had been used freely were the I. W. W.'s subdued. Before the boat left the authorities called on the U. S. army for aid. A lieutenant and 20 soldiers boarded the vessel. The radicals were lined up on deck and were warned that the soldiers had come to preserve order.

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Feb. 11.—Japan's attitude toward China in the peace conference is causing grave apprehension among the representatives of other associated powers, according to official diplomatic information reaching here. Japan virtually has threatened war if China makes public secret treaties between the two countries and fails to carry out an agreement to make Japan the successor of Germany in rights, property and concessions held by the Germans at the outbreak of the European war. China is relying on the peace conference where her delegates are said to have made an excellent impression and in seeking support from the United States and Great Britain. When the Chinese peace delegates arrived in Paris the information now available discloses, they reported that their copies of the secret treaties were stolen from their baggage while they were passing through Japan and consequently they were unable to carry out their purpose to make them public at the conference.

Paris, Feb. 11.—Evidence of President Wilson's intention not to abandon the peace conference upon the ratification of the society of nations plan is found in his plan to return from Washington about March 15. This involves so brief a stay at Washington as to permit only the signing of bills during the closing hours of Congress. It is understood that he intends to give personal attention in Paris to the work of the Supreme executive Council, which promises to be the most important feature of the peace conference after the disposition of the society of nations. The Supreme War Council, although hearing the claims of Belgian delegates in support of the French feel that their country should be protected until on the same footing with Germany. It is expected to refer this matter to an economic committee. The Supreme Economic Council about to be organized is expected to consider French and Belgian proposals that Essen and other German industrial towns shall be occupied to prevent the manufacture of munitions and arms.

(By Associated Press)
Paris, Feb. 11.—Japan has reiterated her intention of holding the Marshall and Caroline Islands in the Pacific, which she took from Germany during the war, as well as to insist upon the execution of her agreement reached in September last with China regarding Shantung. A formal statement to this effect has been made public here. It is not considered that the controversies are likely to delay the society of nations project. At same probable however, that this matter will be considered later by that organization.

SENATE VOTE FOR SUFFRAGE

Washington, Feb. 10.—Woman suffrage by Federal constitutional amendment was beaten again today in the Senate.

The House resolution for submission of the amendment failed of adoption with 55 votes in favor of it and 29 against, one less than the necessary two-thirds.

Thus ended what leading suffrage champions had said in advance would be the final test of this session of Congress. The suffrage advocates went into the test knowing they failed and vote, but hoping to the last that it would be won over. The roll call on the resolution began shortly after two o'clock.

In explaining his decision to support the resolution, Senator Pollock of South Carolina, Democrat, declared the women had won the right to vote before the war and had doubly earned it by their "magnificent spirit of patriotism" in the war.

Replying to arguments of Southern opponents of the resolution, that it would increase the negro vote, he said:

"I say here today that I have confidence in the white people of America—black or white."

Supporting the resolution, Senator Aldrich of New York, Republican, also urged women's work in the war and advocated presentation to women as well as men, distinguished service in the war.

Senator Pringle of New Jersey, Republican, reiterated arguments for amendment of the resolution to limit its operation to women who are American citizens.

Those voting in favor of the resolution were:

Democrats

Republicans
Caldwell, Cull, Cummins, Curtis, Ford, Frick, Gallagher, Gurnea, Harding, Johnson of California, Jones of Washington, Kellogg, Kenyon, La Follette, Lenroot, McCumber, McNary, Nelson, Sew, Norris, Pike, Dinkster, Sherman, Smith of Michigan, Smart, Spencer, Sterling, Stetson, Townsend, Warren, Watson—31.

Totals for 55.

Voting against the resolution were:

Democrats

Republicans
Baird, Borah, Brandegee, Dillingham, Hale, Lodge, McLean, Moses Penrose, Wadsworth, Weeks—11.

Totals for 29.

The following were paired:
Chapman of Oregon and Martin of Kentucky with Reed of Missouri, Giff of West Virginia and Owen of Oklahoma with Shields of Tennessee, Halls of New Hampshire and King of Utah with Knox of Pennsylvania, Dean of California and Pitt of New Mexico with Smith of Maryland.

Because of the two-thirds required for adoption, two advocates of the resolution were paired against one opponent.

TRADES GIRL FOR $30 AND COW

Charge Brought Against Matron of Orphans' Home in Georgia.

Marletta, Ga., Feb. 11.—Investigation of charges that Mrs. Naomi V. Campbell, head of an orphans' home here, had traded a girl inmate for $30 and a cow was begun Monday by Solicitor General Dorsey. The charge developed after the arrest of the woman in connection with a general inquiry relating to the treatment of children at the institution.

Hazel Rankins, a little girl who had been placed in the home was missing when relatives went to take her away. An investigation, the family alleged, shows that the child had been given to a woman at Toccoa, who wanted to adopt her and who gave Mrs. Campbell the money and the cow to bind the trade. Mrs. Campbell denied all charges as to disposition of the orphan and ill treatment of others under her care.

SAVE MONEY ON SHOES FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

From Foochow, China, comes this letter from R. E. Gardner, Foochow College: "Neolin Soles have solved the shoe problem for me. Other soles wore out quickly on the rocky roads here, and I had no end of trouble with them," he writes.

Where other soles fail, Neolin Soles always stand the test of hard wear and rough usage. This fact points the way to economy. Buy Neolin-soled shoes for the whole family, and so save shoe money. And have Neolin Soles put on your old shoes, too.

These durable, flexible, and waterproof soles are scientifically made by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels, guaranteed to outwear all other heels.

SEATTLE STRIKE CALLED OFF

(By Associated Press)
Seattle, Feb. 10.—The general strike which has been on here for the past five days, was today officially declared off at noon tomorrow and the 30,000 union workmen who went out on a sympathetic strike with the 25,000 metal trade workmen for high wages, will return to work. The General strike committee in calling off the strike called upon the other unions who have voted to return to work to come out again and go in at noon tomorrow with the other unions, just to show the united spirit of the unions.

UNABLE TO AGREE ON ARMISTICE CONDITIONS

(By Associated Press)
Paris, Feb. 10.—The Supreme Council of which Marshal Foch and other military leaders are members, today continued their discussion of the terms for the extension of the armistice without arriving at any agreement. At the same time the conference were considering the league of nations and it was stated that they had arrived at an almost complete understanding, and that it was probable that it would be placed before the Conference and by the end of the states that the Supreme Council were discussing the armistice plans and that in the league of nation commission, the French Foreign minister presented the plans of the German General Staff of 1916 showing that the destruction of the French industries was a premeditated plan. The Belgian delegation will be heard at the next meeting.

WOMEN ARE BECOMING KNOCK-KNEED

Philadelphia, Feb. 10.—Dresses which many women now are wearing are causing them to become knock-kneed, knock-armed and sway-backed, recently declared Mrs. J. Milton Mensendick in an address before the 20th Century club.

Dr. William A. Stecher, director of physical education in the Philadelphia public schools, agrees with Mrs. Mensendick that dresses which make women heavier to that description are a style fault.

no danger that they will become permanently disabled by their efforts to conform to the new fashions.

There is nothing the matter with woman's frame of body, but there is with her frame of mind, he said. In other words, she is not knock-kneed, etc., because she can't help it but rather because she wants to be in fashion.

Dr. Cella Mosher of Leland Stanford university says all of a woman's muscles can be developed to be as strong as those of a man, adds Dr. Stecher. "Women are men's muscular inferiors ten to 33 per cent, statisticians say. This is due to no faulty disability, but to woman's dress, and to traditional ideas regarding modest, feminine exercise."

"On the other hand, men are women's inferiors when it comes to feeling the cold. Everybody knows how long a woman can remain in bathing, and how scant her clothing may be in winter, and yet she does not die of exposure."

PEACE TABLES MAY BE MOVED

Paris, Feb. 10.—The removal of the Peace Conference from Paris to some Neutral country, will be undertaken, if the conditions which are characterized as the obstructionist methods of the French press and some of the French officials is not stopped. Representatives taking part believe that the work of the conference has been handicapped by the unfriendly attacks of the French press on the officials of the conference. It has been determined that the matter will come up at the full conference meeting, and the change made unless conditions are bettered.

ONLY LULL IN STORM SAYS PREMIER

Paris, Feb. 10.—"While I have said that the war has been won, it could perhaps be more accurate to say that there is a lull in the storm," said Georges Clemenceau, the French premier, in the course of an interview with the Associated Press Sunday. "At all," he added, "it is not well to face purely all the possibilities."

Although Germany has been beaten militarily and has been largely disarmed, there still remained, the Premier pointed out, chaotic, fruitful Russia from which great help might be given by the Teutons. There would be danger, he thought, of a re-opening of the military debate if it were not for the assurance President Wilson had voiced recently that whenever

France or any other free people was menaced, the whole world would be ready to vindicate its liberty.

In the Society of Nations, said the Premier, each nation must be willing to renounce its traditional aloofness and be willing to erect the national strength outside its own country, both in war time and in peace.

The warmly praised the help the American troops had given in winning the war for Democracy and expressed disbelief that there was a man in the American army of occupation who regretted that he had fought on the side of freedom because he had found more creature comforts in Germany than in France.

Portsmouth, N. H., Tuesday, February 11, 1919.

Highly Questionable Enterprise.

It will doubtless be surprising to many to learn that it has been possible for men holding government positions to also retain connection with business concerns at fat salaries and thereby be enabled to hold out both hands on pay day.

That this has been done was brought out the other day at a hearing in Washington on a government hospital project in Chicago. This question of double salary came up incidentally and Secretary of War Baker said he could see no moral wrong in a government employee receiving a salary from a private corporation, "provided there was no contact between the government and the corporation." It was brought out that a man employed as an assistant in Mr. Baker's office at a salary of $4,000 a year had been employed at the same time by a Philadelphia Corporation at an annual salary of $15,000, making his income from the two sources $19,000 a year. Secretary Baker seemed to think this was all right, in view of the "impecunious" salaries paid by the government. He told the Senate Committee which was conducting the investigation that many men in the government service are poor, and that he could see no moral wrong in such men enlarging their incomes by serving private employers at the same time. The committee was unable to take that view of the matter and Secretary Baker finally admitted that he had given orders to stop the practice, and that this had "resulted in a large number of persons being separated from the government service."

It has been a common supposition—though apparently an erroneous one—that men holding government positions in Washington were giving their time and services to the government alone, but it seems that this has not always been the case. This hearing made plain that one man had drawn $15,000 a year from an outside source while "holding down" a $4,000 government position. The question of the legal or moral right to do this appears not to have been considered until something turned up which caused Secretary Baker to issue orders for a discontinuance of the practice.

The practice is entirely wrong in principle, whether there is any law against it or not. Men who accept positions in the government service should give their time to the government. If the pay is not satisfactory they should relinquish their places and go where they can do better. Under no circumstances should they cling to their positions while selling their services to outside concerns, the government in the meantime paying clerks and assistants for doing the work the holders of the positions are supposed to do.

In view of the scramble for every office and position under the government this talk about "impecunious" salaries is tiresome. The men know what the salaries are before they take the positions, and if these are not considered sufficient they ought to let them alone and take their services to a better market, if they can find it.

It is to be hoped that this revelation will lead to action which will render the practice under discussion impossible. The fact that Secretary Baker has ruled it out of his department is significant, but apparently this was not done until it was discovered that it was liable to raise an unpleasant question. Let it be hoped that this will be the end of a practice that has no proper place in the business of the government.

If the government decides to sell the wheat for which it pays $2.26 a bushel at the market price, which will probably be not much more than half of that figure, the farmers will not, of course, neglect to close out their entire stocks and buy back what they need for their own use. They are not such a sleepy set as some people imagine.

The news of the death of Insurance Commissioner Rufus N. Elwell came as a shock to our citizens. He was a highly esteemed and most popular man here, where he had hosts of friends. He was a true and tried official and had a strong following throughout the state. There was never a more loyal friend to have had than he.

It is well that the practice of using the poles and shade trees for advertising purposes should be stopped. There are enough other means for placing information before the public, and the people of the city are glad to know that a long-standing eyesore is to be removed.

A man was arrested at Portland, Me., the other day wearing a specially constructed canvas vest in which there were eight pockets each containing a pint bottle of whiskey. This form of smuggling comes properly under the head of a "vest pocket essay."

Perhaps it may be possible in this dire period of unemployment for some of the returning soldiers to obtain work in the Newington hay fields.

GIRL RAFFLES STILL MUCH OF MYSTERY

The 19-year-old girl who is now held at the Charles street jail under heavy bonds on many charges of larceny and who has given her name to the police as "Mabel E. Norris, of somewhere in Arkansas," is believed to be a Boston girl who is shielding either a mother from the pain and disgrace of her wrong-doing or else who is protecting a sweetheart accomplice.

The police of the Roxbury Crossing station believe that the girl's name is probably Bernardine Stallings, and they are working along freshly received clues to establish this identity.

There is much mystery attached to the case of this girl. Yesterday she was grilled by Detectives Lyon and Hartnett of the Roxbury Crossing Station. She consistently refused to give them a single shred of information and throughout the interview she smiled at them and appeared perfectly contented with her narrow quarters in the jail. She would admit nothing nor would she confess a single thing.

The police station at Roxbury Crossing was thronged yesterday with college girls that have been robbed. The girls were from Wellesley, Simmons and Marycliffe Academy.

Helen Brugner, a student at Wellesley, identified the fur coat worn by the arrested girl as property stolen from her room at college. Miss Love identified a necklace valued at $125 among the recovered loot and also a ring worth $60. Helena Dodge recognized one of her expensive gowns in the collection. Other smaller claims were made, so that about $1600 worth of property has been identified.

The necklace which Miss Love identified was found tucked under the carpet in the room occupied by Miss Norris before her arrest. This was at 16 Huntington avenue.

Captain Jeremiah Sullivan, in charge of the Roxbury Crossing station, is following every clue to the identity and stealing of the girl. Yesterday he discovered rings that the girl had pawned in a South Boston shop. The tickets were found in her possession, according to the police. The pawnbroker's description of the girl tallied with her appearance. He told Captain Sullivan that the girl wore a beautiful solid diamond when she visited his establishment. This was later found to be the property of another which had been stolen.

That her name is probably Bernardine Stallings, was learned through the discovery of a card, evidently attached to a Christmas gift, inserted with the best wishes of the season and the name. It appears to be in a woman's handwriting. She was familiarly known as "Dine," an abbreviation of Bernardine, at her rooming place on Huntington avenue.

SIX VESSELS FOR TRAINING NEW RECRUITS

Washington, Feb. 11.—To maintain facilities for training merchant seamen, the shipping board has decided to turn six wooden cargo steamers, built during the war, into training ships. Over 35,000 young men have signed applications to take courses which the board is now giving, and it is planned to add deep sea cruising to the curriculum.

When the new vessels are made ready the board will release from requisition eight of the 10 vessels which were turned into training ships during the war. The Maine, receiving ship at Boston, will be retained.

REPORTED DEAD, SOLDIER RETURNS

Pvt. Joseph Drolet of the 5th Battalion of Canadian Grenadiers, reported dead scarcely a month ago, is back in Manchester surprising his friends. They had supposed him dead as an account of his death had been published in Canadian papers and copied by the Manchester papers.

"I'm very much alive," he said this morning, "though it took me some time to convince my wife last evening that I had really come back."

Drolet resides at 177 Spruce street and enlisted in the Canadian army about a year ago. On Oct. 25 he was wounded and given up for dead. His wounds were burns and a bad gassing. He was reported as dead in the official Canadian casualty list and his friends and relatives in Manchester had heard nothing from him since, his appearance last evening created not a little excitement.

He is home on a 14-day furlough and brings with him a cross of Merit awarded him by the French for rescuing a drowning officer from the canal at Cambrai. He is at present stationed at Depot 4 on Peel street, Montreal, not having received his discharge.

Private Drolet tells vivid accounts of the last weeks of fighting when warfare became open. Of the action at Cambrai he says:

"There were no trenches and no dugouts. It was just hammer, hammer, hammer, always on flat fields with no concealment. We went into the action about Cambrai with 1,182 able men and when we were relieved but 1 of us could walk away."

He says that for seven weeks he never took off his shoes as the troops were kept so constantly on the offensive that there was never an opportunity to rest. His narrowest escape from death came when a bullet struck him over the heart. He had in his blouse pocket a watch, a notebook, and several letters from his wife. The bullet plowed its way through the watch and then through the papers until it reached the last leaf of the note book where it stopped.

INSULT CAUSES NEW STRIKE

New Bedford, Feb. 10.—The utterance of vile language and the use of physical force in the discharge of a girl in the drawing-in department of the Booth mills today led to the strike of everyone of the 21 girls employed in the department and unless redress is given tomorrow, for what the girls consider a grievous affront, all the drawing-in girls in the city will strike a Wednesday morning and thereby threaten to force the closing of the mills of the city affecting thousands of workers.

Whether the strike of the girls will be sanctioned by the union to which they belong is a matter of conjecture, as none of the officers of the union could this evening make a statement with regard to the matter. However, the girls declare, tonight, they will strike all the mills in the city on Wednesday morning, regardless of the union, if the management of the Booth mills decline to make amends for the offensive action of this morning.

"The time has come when we girls will not tolerate any abuse or mean treatment which a domineering boss may wish to pass out to us," said one of the girls this evening in stating the case of the girls. "We have done rights, and though we never before in polite treatment, it is not too late to begin now."

"Abuse from the boss and insults and threats and unseemly language are no longer one of the conditions of employment. Some may think it is, but we are determined to take the position that it is not, and we will see this matter through. Of course, the men will stand by us. I expect to see the matter straightened out when the real management of the mill bears the facts."

During the early work hours today, a girl employed as a drawing-in girl in the cloth room of the Booth mill was approached by the foreman and told that she was discharged. The reason for her dismissal has not yet been disclosed to those outside the employees. The foreman is said to have used vile, insulting language, and also to have applied physical force in ejecting the girl.

The 21 other girls in the room, overhearing the insults and observing their weeping co-worker handled with physical violence, could not restrain their emotions and they loudly protested. They quickly conferred with one another, and on the instant decided to walk out and remain away from work until the discharged girl is reinstated and apologized to.

When the story of the matter reached the other girls in the other mills they, too, showed their sympathy and determined to strike as a unit on Wednesday morning unless the Booth mill management right their wrongs. There are 600 drawing-in girls in the local mills and as their work is preliminary to that done by the other textile workers their cessation of work would in a short time affect thousands of workers.

All the workers in the spinning departments of the local mills struck today for a 12-hour work week. Prior to the granting of the 48-hour work week to the textile workers these workers were employed one hour less a day than the others. When the shorter work week was established they sought to secure a 42-hour work week, but this was denied. They now ask a schedule that will allow them to work one hour less a day than the other textile workers, namely, 42 hours a week.

INSTANT WHISKEY OUTFIT GRABBED

Portland, Feb. 11.—Add half a quart of pure alcohol and half a quart of pure water to the contents of a vial the size of a fat man's thumb and you have a quart of whiskey.

You may take your choice of the English or the French directions printed on the label; they are simultaneous and the result is alike.

Deputy Sheriff Wheeler picked the outfit and the owner in Union Station on arrival of the train from Boston. Vincenzo Ricci, who was carrying a bag and suit case was held until Feb. 20 on two charges in the Municipal Court Monday forenoon.

Three dozen vials were found in the suit case. The respondent said that he intended to manufacture this kind of whiskey for his own use and that he did not intend to sell it. He showed that he could secure double the quantity ultimately by bringing in half as much bulk in alcohol as if he tried to bring in its equivalent in whiskey.

These 15 quarts of alcohol would make 40 odd quarts of average whiskey, the kind that retails in the side streets and alleys at $7 a quart, these vials costing 1 cent each. A 100c of the mixture was fixed up in the 15-quart bottles' proof and it is similar in color and odor to whiskey with a taste strong or weak according to the proportion of alcohol in the solution.

ROCKINGHAM DELEGATES VISIT COUNTY FARM

The biennial visit of the Rockingham delegation to the County Farm at Greenland was made on Monday and there was a large attendance, practically all of the delegation being present.

They were met by the County Commissioners and shown over the farm and the Commissioners had good cause to be proud of the new set of buildings which have been completed since the last legislature. The farm buildings and the stock were all in the usual excellent condition and the members of the delegation learned from the inmates that they were happy and contented and being well cared for.

At noon a chicken dinner was served and this was well cooked and served and at the conclusion a business meeting was held. A discussion as to the damage being done by deer in this county should be attended.

They went fifty-four minutes and then Perrilli landed Dryden on his shoulders and won the fall and match.

HINDENBURGH PREFERRED TRUCE

Berlin, Sunday, Feb. 9. (By Associated Press.)—Field Marshal Von Hindenburg, in urging last November that the armistice terms of the Allies be accepted, admitted that the German Army would otherwise be forced to surrender, according to a statement made by Constantin Fehrenbach, vice president of the National Assembly at Weimar.

Fehrenbach said he was present on November 10 at the meeting in the Chancellery, at which, after Dr. Baumbach, the foreign secretary, read the terms of the armistice from Field Marshal Von Hindenburg was read, requesting that the armistice conditions be accepted forthwith, as he could not hold his army together any longer. "The Army was already deserting," he declared, and if the Allied conditions were not accepted it would be forced to capitulate with the better forces.

LAWRENCE STRIKE JUST A MOB

Boston, Feb. 10.—The trouble in Lawrence is not a strike, it's a mob, said Henry J. Skellington, United States Commissioner of Immigration, who left Boston last night for Washington, where he is spending today conferring with Secretary of Labor Wilson and Hugh L. Kerwin, director of immigration, one of the bureau connected with the Department of Labor. During the war Mr. Skellington has been serving as a labor conciliator for the purpose of "doing his bit" and has found no end of hard work in addition to his regular immigration duties. He has no use for the spirit that is to blame for the situation today in Lawrence.

"This Lawrence disturbance," he said, "is one for the city and State authorities to deal with. It is a mob, nothing else. There is no real leadership, which makes it difficult for any authority to try to treat with them as a whole. What's the use of spending time trying to have a few of the crowd that wants mob rule agree to something, when you know that they have no control over the others?"

Simply a 48-Hour Week
The labor union—United Textile Workers of America—called for a forty-eight hour week and nothing more. That was a well organized movement and covered the textile industry all over the country. There were responsible heads to deal with and make agreements. But these fellows, some of these self-constituted leaders, are merely part of a general scheme to import into this country the plans of the Russian Bolsheviks. The I. W. W., Bolsheviki and a certain red-eyed type of so-called "Socialists" should be placed in the same class.

"I believe that the trouble in Lawrence and that at Seattle will be the two best examples of reasons why more severe punishments must be made possible in order to stamp out anarchy, for that's all this sort of thing amounts to, call it whatever you will. When Congress starts framing more effective laws to shut out of deal in other ways with these anarchist countenances under a variety of names I feel sure that Lawrence and Seattle will furnish a great deal of material for thought and action."

Predicts Early Collapse
"I shall be back in Boston on Tuesday and by then I expect to find that the strike has started to show decided signs of going to pieces. There is no doubt but that a very large part of the people who are out of the mills never wanted to quit work and are ready to go back except that they dislike to face an unruly crowd. Now, as this is nothing short of a disorganized mob that is interfering with these people who want to go back to their jobs, it is for the police to protect them and enforce the laws, just as they are doing. I feel sure that this will be done, possibly with State cooperation if needed."

"You see this strike is not what they pretend to be. Some of the leaders have given away the secret by claims that the time is at hand, or almost here, when the workers will take possession of the mills. That shows how dangerous they really are. They want to confiscate everything, as was done in Russia—a fine example of how their plans work out when they want to establish something like that in this country and the Government knows it and intends to put a stop to it for once and all. When the time arrives they will be cleaned up in first-class shape. There's no mistake about that, take it from me."

U. S. VALOR MEDALS MADE IN PHILADELPHIA MINT

Philadelphia, Feb. 8.—Every medal that the United States Government confers is made in the Philadelphia mint. For the War Department alone, the big Federal money factory is at present turning out twenty-two types of medals. The badge of honor awarded to Marsals Foch, Halg and Joffre, and other

BAD BREATH
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work. People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasy, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. V. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

distinguished Allied commanders, were the product of the mint.

Marsals Foch is reported to have received the American distinction of the Medal in the highest military decoration awarded. About two hundred of these medals of bronze and brilliant blue enamel are made every week in this city and turned over to the War department for shipment to the camps and Army headquarters at home and abroad.

Many more of the Military Crosses awarded for valor, are being made. More than five thousand of these have already been shipped from the mint. In manufacturing these medals ten impressions are made by a hydraulic press on a small square of bronze, beginning with one hundred tons pressure and increasing to two hundred and fifty tons. After the die has been stamped in this fashion, the cross is cut out by machine. The medal is then passed to workmen who fashion the little cross bars from which it is suspended, ribbons are attached and the decoration is placed in a box ready for delivery.

The United States Navy Medal of Honor is also made at the mint. There are manufactured the various kinds of medals awarded for sharpshooting, marksmanship and other honors of the service.

An order now being filled calls for ten thousand Mexican service medals, attractive bronze discs for the men who were in the Cruz expedition. Now that the Peace Conference at Paris has approved the award of a distinctive service medal to every man who served in any of the Allied armies the Philadelphia mint may be called upon to manufacture medals by the million.

Hot Water for Sick Headaches

Tells why everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it before breakfast.

Headache of any kind, is caused by auto-intoxication—which means self-poisoning. Liver and bowel poisons, called toxins, sucked into the blood, through the lymph ducts, excite the heart which pumps the blood so fast that it congests in the smaller arteries and veins of the head producing violent, throbbing pain and distress, called headache. You become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish and miserable, your meals sour and almost nauseous you. Then you resort to acetaminophen, aspirin or the bromides which temporarily relieve but don't rid the blood of those irritating toxins.

A glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, drunk before breakfast for awhile, will not only wash these poisons from your system and cure you of headache but will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary canal.

Ask your pharmacist for a quarter pound of limestone phosphate. It is inexpensive, harmless, as sugar.

If you aren't feeling your best, if tongue is coated or you wake up with bad taste, foul breath, or have colds, indigestion, biliousness, constipation, or sour, acid stomach, begin the phosphate hot water cure to rid your system of toxins and poisons.

THE HERALD HEARS

That one can see the boom for elder of late from the fact that apples have been hauled a distance of 50 miles or more to be ground up for juice in some of the elder mills in this section.

That the change proposed in the numbers of the three alarm boxes is not a costly matter and is much needed.

That the matter of police signal boxes is another thing that has been overlooked too long.

That the Boston and Maine officials at the depot say that women on the navy yard trains take as many dangerous chances as the men.

That some of them can give the railroad men a tip on jumping on and off trains.

That the officials of the Boston and Maine believe that the railroad will yet have to be considered in any new bridge across the Piscataqua.

That it is a safe bet that if the railroad is ever considered it won't be on the matter of any toll bridge.

That some of the law makers at Concord are more busy with bills to adopt a flower for the state and bounty on crows and hedgehogs, than they are with much other more important legislation.

That the boiler in the Stockingham County Court house which heats that building and also the jail, has been condemned.

That it is reported once more that the Boston and Maine will put the other toll collector on the Maine side of the Portsmouth and Kittery bridge about April 1.

LOCAL WOMEN SAY SUFFRAGE MUST COME

Have Faith That The Suffrage Movement Will Succeed.

Prominent suffragists in this city took the defeat of the suffrage amendment yesterday with complete calm.

One prominent woman in speaking to a Herald man on the subject, said that while she would not care to be quoted, the outcome of the vote was not a matter of surprise to her and that other suffragists had expressed the same opinion to her.

She said that the movement was bound to come eventually, and that this particular vote only delayed the issue for a little while. This spirit of calm faith in this cause seems to be the feeling of the majority of Portsmouth women and those expressing any bitterness on the defeat yesterday were few and far between. But as they all said, "It will come."

THE RED AND BLACK FLAG

A black flag is an ugly thing. It is carried by pirates and robbers, and means violence and bloodshed.

The red flag is not quite so bad, but it is bad enough. With the collapse of the great war, there are multitudes of these unfurled over Europe, and this gives the civilized world much anxiety. Once in a while we see a red flag in our American cities.

As this stands for rebellion and anarchy, we are against it. If there is a hole in the road, or a bridge is broken, it is well to hoist a red flag as a warning. This is well understood. But when the people raise a red flag as a sign that they are going to break things up, that is another thing.
